also a musician, having from his native land a clarinet manufactured in Paris.

The first item of official record concerning him is the birth of a son Wayne County, Ohio in 1845; a son was born in Upper Sandusky in 1848. The county records of Defiance County show that he bought several lots in 1847 and sold in 1853.

In 1853 he bought a few acres in Section 3 of Noble Township, Defiance County. Perhaps because he had been living in town, he had no animals at first, and at haying the wagon was propelled by manpower. In 1858 he bought the lot in Section 14, Tiffin Township and he spent the remainder of his life was married to Maria Rixey, a daughter of the Kingdom of Hanover which was later incorporated with Maine. She was born in 1803 and died in 1887. She and her husband were buried in St. John's Cemetery.

The older son of this immigrant was Lewis Ferris, a Civil War veteran who lost an arm during the grand charge in the siege of Vicksburg. He was only sixteen when he enlisted in Company F, 48th Ill. Later he was given a flag with six stars, a possession highly valued by his descendants. In 1864 he married Adelia Ellen Justice. To them were born four children: a son, John, who died in childhood; Wilson, 1865-1941; O. W., 1871-1938; and Annie Bruce, born in 1868. He died in 1923 and was buried in Hickok Ferris, the younger son of Lewis and Maria, was born in Sandusky January 3, 1848 and lived in his Tiffin Township home until 1930. As a mere boy he tried to emulate his brother by attempting military service in the army, but he was rejected because of his youth and stature. He and a partner operated a threshing machine for a few years but his main occupation was farming.

John Ferris' wife was Mary Weismiller, born in Tiffin Township July 10, a daughter of John Henry Weismiller, Beiderwells, Miers, Rumkeys, and Frederick Toberen. These pioneers settled on the east side of Tiffin River or Bean Creek as it was then known.

Mr. Weismiller had two children at that time, William and Ann, and possibly another who died as a child. It is not clear whether his first wife was still living at the time of his arrival, but he later married Barbara Stier, 1810-1886, who was born at Epfenbach, Baden, Germany. She probably came to America with her brother, Georg Stier in 1845.

The Weismillers lived in a log house consisting of one lower and one upper room located in Section 11 on land which was purchased in 1840 when the township was part of Williams County. The house was still standing in the early 1900's. John Henry died in the early 1850's, leaving his wife with their two small children, Mary and Herman. The latter was a soldier in the Civil War, in Company I, 197th Regiment, Ohio Infantry. After the war he married Louisa Stever, member of a prominent pioneer family. They lived in Illinois for a few years, then moved to Grinnell, Iowa.

The children of Frank and Mary Ferris were Etta (Mrs. William Gur-well) 1870-1935, mother of Lola (Mrs.
Harold Chappuis) and Ferris Gur-well; Tena (Mrs. Jacob Hockman) 1872-1948, mother of Glen F. Hockman and an infant daughter (deceased); Della (Mrs. Fred W.
Stock) 1874-1959; John L., 1879-1951, father of Evelyn and Gail C. Ferris; Emma (Mrs. Clem Patten) 1881-1957, mother of Leonard F. Patten; Blanche (Mrs. Claude L. Partee) 1888-1971, mother of Mary Lelsle (Mrs. Ronald B. Baringer) and a son who died at birth.

John L. Ferris, the only son of Frank and Mary Ferris, was born in a log cabin May 12, 1879 and died May 13, 1951 in the house that had been built the year of his birth. He was a farmer and school teacher who had a special interest in improving the educational facilities of the community.
He, his wife, and their two children attended the Defiance College.

He married Dott M. Peterson

Amelia M. Garber Peterson, whose children were Kathryn (Mrs. Walter Partee) 1875-1957; Dott M.; Cora (Mrs. Fred Lingle) 1880-1971; Minnie (Mrs. Leeland W. Briggs) 1881-1943; Lloyd C., 1884-1952, who married Emma Stock; Erman, 1887-1952, who married Clela Hall and Olive Kuhnes; and Lieutenant-Colonel Glen Peterson, 1892-1951, a veteran of both World Wars, who married Wilma Yarlott. The Peterson family had come to Defiance County in the mid-1840's; the Garber ancestry has been traced to Pre-Revolutionary times in this country.

John and Dott Ferris were the parents of two children: Evelyn, a teacher and librarian, and Gail C., also an educator, who died August 5, 1948. He and his wife, Marie Colgan, had two children, Mary Alice (Mrs.
Wayne E. Roth) and a son who was still-born.

The Frank Ferris family attended the Tiffin River United Brethren Church for many years. This frame building was located on a corner of the old Benner farm in Section 15 at the junction of the Christy and Gruber Roads. When the congregation was disbanded, the structure was sold to a church group in Defiance and the land reverted to the former owner.

Just north of this church, in the Gares Grove, the annual Sunday School picnic was held. This was a high point in the year's events with much good-natured rivalry among the churches of the area, each striving to be the first to place its banner on the platform.

FICKLE — CONKEY

My grandparents were the William J. Bryan family who came to Defiance county from Bryan around 1885. They settled on a farm in Mark Township on the Farmer and Mark Township line. They lived in a log house and had to cross Lost Creek to get to the buildings. There were nine children of which one was my mother, Jessie Bryan.

In 1890, she married Isaac Fickle, a son of George Fickle. There were two daughters: Della M., born April 25, 1892; and Beulah G., born November 20, 1895. The family occupation was farming and my father, Isaac Fickle, also had a tile mill in Farmer township.

I, Della M. Fickle, married Claud C. Conkey on October 17, 1912 at William Center United Brethren Church. Claud was a son of Willie Conkey of Farmer Township. His mother was the former Lettie Dunmire of Farmer Township. He was born on November 9, 1889.

We started housekeeping one and a half miles east of Farmer on the Otis Wilder farm, later moving to the Elmer Bryan farm in Mark Township on the Farmer and Mark Township line. We lived other places in Farmer Township, Mark Township, and Paulding County and to our present residence in Milford Township which was formerly the Charles Sinn farm. We purchased this farm in 1949. The family church is the Church of Christ in Farmer, Ohio of which I am a charter member.

We have two children: Lynn D. Conkey, born on March 4, 1914, in Mark Township and Geraldine Conkey, born on September 13, 1915 in Farmer Township. They both attended school at Farmer, at a little schoolhouse two miles west of Farmer. They graduated from Farmer High School in 1933.

There was a Farmers' Institute held in Farmer for many years. It was a gathering of all the farmers of the area and the ladies prepared a great meal consisting of large kettles of chicken and noodle soup, potatoes, pies, cakes, etc. There was a small charge for the meal to help pay for the speakers and other expenses of the event. In January 1932, I was chairman for the North half of Farmer Township and the event took place in the school auditorium. The community dinner was a great asset to the Farmers' Institute. It was believed that a community eating together helped us to work together.

Lynn Conkey is a farmer and now resides on the old Kleckner farm in Farmer Township on the Farmer and Mark Township line. He purchased the farm in 1960. His children are Raymond, Howard and Brenda. Raymond lives in Milford Township with his wife Juanita (Rowe). They have two children, Raymond Jr. and Lisa. Howard lives near Detroit, Michigan with his wife Marian (Jessme) and they have two children, Darla and Brolan. Brenda and her husband, Larry Zeedyk, are in Germany where her husband is stationed with the Army. They have three sons, Spencer, Derek and Brian.

Geraldine (Conkey) Schroeder now resides with her husband Delbert in Sherwood. Their children are Claudia, Darwin and James. Claudia and her husband, Charles Powell, live in Mark Township and have four children. They are Katherine, Charles Jr., Karen and Russell. Darwin and his wife Mary Jane (Coresel) live in Mark Township. James and his wife Carol (McClure) live in Paulding County.

And so the family continues to grow with six grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren. We celebrated our sixtieth wedding anniversary in 1972 and have seen many years come and go and have seen many, many changes; especially in farming. Not too many people use horses any more. Everything is big farm machinery now. What does the future hold for our younger generation?

Della M. Conkey

FINZER FAMILY

The history of the Finzer family in Defiance County, Ohio began in Berne, Switzerland in 1839. In that year, on January 23, Nicholas Finzer was born. At the age of 14 he immigrated to America with his parents. They settled in New Philadelphia, Ohio in Tuscarawas County. Nicholas lived there for 17 years, then moved to Canton, Ohio where he worked as a stone mason. While in Canton he met Magdelene Intermille. Magdelene, born April 9, 1845, was also immigrant. They were married in 1870.

In 1876 the Finzers moved to Defiance County. They settled on near Hicksville, Ohio where they lived for the rest of their lives. Magdelene worked as a farmer and occasionally as a mason.

The Finzers had six children: William, Lily, George, Frank, Harry, and Estel. They were members of the United Brethren Church at Six Corners. Mr. Finzer died March 9, 1909. His wife died in 1918. At that time the farm was taken over by the youngest son, George "Frank" Finzer.

Known as Frank, G. F. Finzer was born December 2, 1875 in Defiance, Ohio. He moved to New Philadelphia, Ohio, and was employed as a department store for 15 years. In 1906 Finzer left Ohio and moved to Oregon where he homesteaded a 64-acre piece of land.

He returned to New Philadelphia, Ohio on March 2, 1910 where he married Della Fribley. Della was born November 11, 1884, a daughter of Catherine Wolfe and Lamb Fribley. She grew up in Old Town, Ohio south of New Philadelphia. Della lived in Oregon during her first year of marriage. They moved to Defiance County in 1911. Frank began operating the Finzer farm north of Hicksville. The Finzers had two children: Betty Jane and Fribley.

G. F. worked the Finzer farm until his health forced him to retire. He lived on the farm until his death on June 4, 1961. Della, following Frank's death on December 5, 1973, continued the farm work was taken over by Frank. Frank was born April 1, 1911 in Hicksville. He grew up on his parents' farm.

Frank went to school in Hicksville and chose farming as his occupation. On April 9, 1945 he married Lela Appel, daughter of Vanda and Lelan Appel of Farmer Township. She was born March 24, 1911 in Hicksville. Elowene grew up on her parents' farm west of Farmer Township. Frank and Elowene Picture of the Past... Can you identify the house in this week's picture from Hicksville's past?

Carolyn (Wickerham) Cheeley (Class of 1951) recognized the picture of the Yellowstone right off as she worked there from Feb 1950 until Feb. 1952. She then joined the Women's Army Corps after graduation. Her work schedule was 6:00 PM until 2:00 AM; the "good hours" as she remembers.

Carolyn also mentions that Andy Panico (Class of 1941) is relation. Her mother Audrey Wickerham would take her young daughter to visit the Panico's when they lived in an apartment above the Pool Room. Andy would let her play pool once and awhile.

Carolyn states that she and her sister Patsy grew up at 305 Crook. She now lives in Columbus and her sister, whom she sees quite often, lives only a couple miles away. Her two daughters, Wendy and Cindy also live in the Columbus area. Wendy is a teacher in the Columbus public school system and Cindy works at The OSU Veterinarian Extension office as an administrator.

After hearing that I did some officiating, Carolyn mentioned that her daughter, Wendy, made the OHSAA

Of course, I had to check out the 1951 Hixonian and find Carolyn on page 54. She is on the same page with classmates Sharon (Walters) Applegate, Gene "Shorty" Volkert, Francis Toth, Martha (Timbrook) Sweet, and Jo Ann (Shull) Miller. "Peanuts", was listed as her nickname and the little quote under her name goes like this. "In sports she's quite the lass, and what's more she's the treasurer of the class". I dug a little farther and Carolyn and Jim "Mouse" Jones were selected "Most Athletic" in the 1951 Coronation.

Update: Just received a package from Carolyn. It has a couple old pictures and an interesting paper. It is entitled "a Short History Of Hicksville, Ohio by The Eighth Grade Civics class of Roger L. Chaney. I will refer to it later. It has many drawings of Hicksville churches done by Mary Ann Katona and Pat Brickel.

Willie's Trivia: I will have to admit, the Bible Trivia was a little difficult. We will try Music/Songs this week. 1. Who sang the #1 hit "That'll Be the Day" in the 50's? 2. Who sang his "Salt Peanuts" to President Jimmy from Farmer High School in 1909. This would put him at the right age for that race because he told Raymond that he was about 21 years old when the won that race. The date at the bottom of the picture was 1910. Claude married Della Fickle in 1912 and they started housekeeping in Farmer Township. He was a farmer his entire life. In 1940 they moved to the Brewster farm on St. Rt. 49 south directly across from the Snyder farm. Nate Snyder and Claude were best of friends. Both houses are still on Rt. 49. Fred Snyder lives in the old Snyder house in the summer and across the road, back the lane is the old Conkey residence. I think one of Rolland Clem's sons lives in the house now.

Raymond remembers the first Oliver tractor his grandfather had. It had steel wheels. In 1949 Claude bought his first farm from Charles Sinn on Huber Road in Milford Township. Which, by the way, (Raymond's wife called to mention) is the very same farm where my Grandfather Harry Metz lived in the 30's. How many of you can remember the tornado that swept through town in 1939? (Another story) Lynn, Raymond's father, and Claude would run a maple sugar camp. As a youngster he can remember going into the woods and gathering sap with his father and grandfather. Those were the good old days.

Ironically, W. Kenny Wonderly (Class of 1942) stopped in the other day and brought me a box of goodies. In the box was an assortment of cards and invitations that he collected from the trash years ago when he worked at the News Tribune. It seems that Mr. Schell, the owner back in the early 1900's would save all his engraving and printings in case someone would come in and suggest he made a misprint. The content of this box, from the years 1909 to 1930, was almost incinerated when Kenny saved them. I have them all sorted and will refer to them from time to time. Wedding invitauntil 2:00 AM; the good hours as she remembers.

Carolyn also mentions that Andy Panico (Class of 1941) is relation. Her mother Audrey Wickerham would take her young daughter to visit the Panico's when they lived in an apartment above the Pool Room. Andy would let her play pool once and awhile.

Her two daughters, Wendy and Cindy also live in the Columbus area. Wendy is a teacher in the Columbus public school system and Cindy works at The OSU Veterinarian Extension office as an administrator.

After hearing that I did some officiating, Carolyn mentioned that her daughter, Wendy, made the OHSAA girls finals as the first alternate in 2000. This is quite an accomplishment to be selected as the third official in a girl's final game with all the officials in Ohio.

The Precious Secret Sheltie Rescue out of Middletown, OH occupies much of her time. This organization finds homes for Shelties until a good home can be found. She has three right now and wants to find a home for them. Does anyone want one?

Carolyn has many fond memories of the "kind" people in town. She recalls collecting on her paper route around Christmas time. A "Mr. Deardorf" (I wonder if it is the same one that lived on East High) asked her if she got everything she wanted for Christmas. Carolyn wanted a pair of ice skates and did not get them. He said to wait. When he came back to the door he told her to go up to "Burgoynes" and pick out a pair. He had called and told the owner to put them on his bill. Another time while delivering papers in the cold freezing rain, Carolyn recalls being asked by Mr. Ginther if she would like a ride to finish her route. These are the acts of kindness she remembers about this small community. There are a few more stories am going to tell you about in future articles. Too many to get in this time!

Who sang his "Salt Peanuts" to President Jimmy Carter at a White house function? 3. Who did Phil Collins replace as lead Genesis singer in 1975? 4. What 1984 John Cougar Mellencamp hit owed a great deal to "I Fought The Law"? 5. What was the Al Jolson hit "My _____"? 6. Who had the 1981 hit, "Arthur's Theme"? 7. In 1988 where did Roy Orbison play his final gig? 8. For whose band is Nigel Olsson known as drummer? 9. Which Jones produced Michael Jackson's "Thriller" album? 10.

Local Trivia Question: Identify the location of the house in the "Picture of the Past" and the family that lived there in the 50's. If you identify the man in the picture, it will be a bonus. We don't know!

Last week's "Picture of the Past" featuring the young man with his bicycle was none other than the winner of that July 4th bicycle race that was pictured a few weeks ago. When Raymond Conkey saw that picture in the News Tribune it reminded him of his Grandfather Claude Conkey giving him that picture and telling him that he won that race at the Defiance county Fairgrounds. In those days bicycling was a big part in getting around from place to place. Raymond gave me some information about his grandfather.

He was born in Farmer Township on November 9, 1889. He graduated Raymond's father, and Claude would run a maple sugar camp. As a youngster he can remember going into the woods and gathering sap with his father and grandfather. Those were the good old days.

Ironically, W. Kenny Wonderly (Class of 1942) stopped in the other day and brought me a box of goodies. It seems that Mr. Schell, the owner back in the early 1900's would save all his engraving and printings in case someone would come in and suggest he made a misprint. The content of this box, from the years 1909 to 1930, was almost incinerated when Kenny saved them. I have them all sorted and will refer to them from time to time. Wedding invitations, death notices, Masonic Events, Church functions, Armory Parties, Acme Club information, Political Cards, Horse stud services, and Huber Theater events are just a few of the cards that I have sorted.

For instance, did you know that for $6 you could have K.W. Countryman have his Draft Stallion insure you a living colt. Frank, the horse's name, is a light bay with a star in his forehead. He will make the season of 1909 at the farm of Wm. Countryman, 4 miles Northwest of Hicksville. K.W. Countryman owner and keeper. This information is printed on a 5" by 3" card and even has a drawing of this big draft horse.

Anyway, I found this wedding invitation. Mr. And Mrs. Claude C. Conkey was announcing their daughter, Geraldine, was to be married to Mr. Delbert P. Schroeder. The date was Saturday, February 14, 1942 and the location was the St. John's Lutheran Church in Sherwood. Now isn't that a coincidence!

We lived other places in Farmer Township, Mark Township, and Paulding County and to our present residence in Milford Township which was formerly the Charles Sinn farm. We purchased this farm in 1949. The family church is the Church of Christ in Farmer, Ohio of which I am a charter member.

We have two children: Lynn D. Conkey, born on March 4, 1914, in Mark Township and Geraldine Conkey, born on September 13, 1915 in Farmer Township. They both attended school at Farmer, at a little schoolhouse two miles west of Farmer. They graduated from Farmer High School in 1933.

There was a Farmers' Institute held in Farmer for many years. It was a gathering of all the farmers of the area and the ladies prepared a great meal consisting of large kettles of chicken and noodle soup, potatoes, pies, cakes, etc. There was a small charge for the meal to help pay for the speakers and other expenses of the event. In January 1932, I was chairman for the North half of Farmer Township and the event took place in the school auditorium. The community dinner was a great asset to the Farmers' Institute. It was believed that a community eating together helped us to work together.

Lynn Conkey is a farmer and now resides on the old Kleckner farm in Farmer Township on the Farmer and Mark Township line. He purchased the farm in 1960. His children are Raymond, Howard and Brenda. Raymond lives in Milford Township with his wife Juanita (Rowe). They have two children, Raymond Jr. and Lisa. Howard lives near Detroit, Michigan with his wife Marian (Jessme) and they have two children, Darla and Brolan. Brenda and her husband, Larry Zeedyk, are in Germany where her husband is stationed with the Army. They have three sons, Spencer, Derek and Brian.

Geraldine (Conkey) Schroeder now resides with her husband Delbert in Sherwood. Their children are Claudia, Darwin and James. Claudia and her husband, Charles Powell, live in Mark Township and have four children. They are Katherine, Charles Jr., Karen and Russell. Darwin and his wife Mary Jane (Coresel) live in Mark Township. James and his wife Carol (McClure) live in Paulding County.

And so the family continues to grow with six grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren. We celebrated our sixtieth wedding anniversary in 1972 and have seen many years come and go and have seen many, many changes; especially in farming. Not too many people use horses any more. Everything is big farm machinery now. What does the future hold for our younger generation?

They lived in a log house and had to cross Lost Creek to get to the buildings. There were nine children of which one was my mother, Jessie Bryan.

50th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Conkey of rural Hicksville are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary. Raymond Conkey and Juanita Rowe were married on March 21, 1964, by cousin Donald A. Foust, minister of the Beech Grove Church of Christ in Roanoke, Ind. They are the parents of Raymond Jr. (Linda) Conkey of Hicksville, Theresa, deceased, and Lisa (Christopher) O'Flaherty of Forest. They have four grandchildren. The couple were surprised recently by family and friends to celebrate the occasion.

DEAR ABBY: I have been in a relationship for two years. We gave each other our phone passwords as soon as we made it official to avoid keeping things from each other.

One night I had a sudden urge to go through his phone. I had never done it before, and when I looked at his Facebook messages, I saw he had been exchanging inappropriate pictures with someone. I was shocked and angry, and it almost ended our relationship.

He deleted and blocked this person, and I forgave him. We don't talk about it anymore. I haven't noticed any other red flags, but now, when he's asleep or goes somewhere and leaves his phone at home, just looking at it upsets me. I'll put a pillow or a blanket over it so I can "forget" it's there. I don't know if I should take another peek to make sure he's staying on the straight and narrow, or if ignorance is bliss. What do you think? — UNSURE GUY IN TEXAS

DEAR UNSURE GUY: Ignorance ISN'T bliss. Being able to trust the man you're with is, and if it turns out you can't, it's better that you know sooner rather than later. It appears you still have some unresolved trust issues with him that need to be discussed.

Between you and me, if he was trying to conceal something, he probably wouldn't be leaving his phone exposed and vulnerable to checking.

DEAR ABBY: I'm 39 and have been married for 12 years. My wife is 35. When we first got together, my wife did not want to have kids right away. She said maybe after I graduated from college, or perhaps we could adopt. It took more time because of some surgeries, but I have graduated now and I want to start a family.

She now says she thought I was kidding when we were

Dear Nana,

It was nice to get your letter. We all are fine and busy getting ready for the Holiday season - We were late getting Winter weather but have quite a lot of snow now. We have had kind of a hectic couple of years but ^{everything turned out fine} Harold had a heart attack in Dec of 73 but is fine now and working every day. Harriet had any problem since but took off some weight and is taking it easier and taking his frequent North Woods fishing trips.

I fell on the patio and broke my ankle in July but went back to work in October. Debbie is attending continuing education classes in Hillsdale.

Terry graduated in June from NTID - PIT in Rochester N.Y. He was in a bad accident in March of 74 while home for Spring Break but was able to go back to school for fall term.

Randy lives out to Long Lake and works for a construction co. Has one little boy now.

Vicki lives in Littlefield and has David and Lisa.

Sam lives in Adrian teaches at the high school - and night college classes. He has ^{Lauren, Heidi and Tony} Love to you at Christmas

They will all be here Christmas day - make quite a house full -

Hoping to be able to come to see you in Pennsylvania. Don't think I'll ever get Harold back to Wash. D.C.

Happy Holidays - and happiness through out the new year - A big Season's Greetings to all and many also - Beth and Harold Ewing
